

NERA/NFPF Board's plan for 2014

The Board will continue to work on NERA/NFPF's main tasks: The annual congress, the journal and the networks within the overall aim of developing the quality of educational research in the Nordic countries. The Board will also continue to develop the association as to become the first choice for educational researchers and scholars in the Nordic countries.

1. Recruitments of members

- further develop the quality of the congress
- further develop the quality of the journal
- further develop the web site to make it even more informative for members and user friendly
- continue to follow up member registrations at NERA/NFPF congress

2. Networks

- further strengthen the networks through developing their presence on the NERA/NFPF web site
- further discuss the structure, role and functions of the NERA/NFPF networks

3. Web site

- continue to develop the web site in the line of user friendly, informative and updated and to make it an active and used web site
- make linkages to sister associations in other countries to use these as repositories for knowledge exchange about conferences, educational research and education systems

4. Congress economy

- continuously discuss the congress costs in order to keep the registration fee at a reasonable level
- sharpen the routines for monitoring the overall expenses for congresses
- establish an information base in order for accumulated experiences from congresses to be easily accessible for further congresses

5. Nordic studies in education

- actively support the editor in the quality assurance and development of the journal, see also editor plan

6. International activities

- continue its cooperation with EERA (European Educational Research Association) by playing an active role in the EERA Council
- Use the slot NERA/NFPF has at the AERA congress (American Educational Research Association)
