

EERA Summer School 2018

Qualitative and Mixed Methods Research Designs:
From designing to publishing

9 – 13 July 2018

Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic

EERA, Masaryk University and the Czech Educational Research Association are pleased to announce the 2018 EERA Summer School which will be held at Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic, from 9 - 13 July 2018.

We invite 70 European doctoral and advanced research students to a five-day Summer School on the topic “Qualitative and Mixed Methods Research Designs: From designing to publishing”. The Summer School will take place at the Department of Educational Sciences, Faculty of Arts.

The Summer School aims to:

- open and promote a European research space for collaboration and networking between early career educational researchers
- explore the opportunities and challenges available through different analysis approaches in educational research projects
- provide insights into contemporary research topics, research questions and research methods.

The Summer School will offer:

Morning sessions with stimulating lectures on various educational research topics with experienced professors as well as opportunities to discuss and develop your own research project in collaboration with other research students and experienced tutors. There will be a visit to the beautiful historical town of Kroměříž (UNESCO World Heritage site).

The five day course will be a mixture of lectures, workshops and peer group discussions. Students will be advised and supervised by experienced researchers. 3 ECT credits will be appointed.

Who can attend?

Applicants normally come from or study in EERA’s member countries. Their thesis must relate to educational research. The Summer School will be held in English. There is no tuition fee, but participants must cover their travel costs and make a contribution of 250 € (students from High GDP countries) or 130 € (students from Low GDP countries). Accommodation costs in Brno will be covered. Participants will be expected to share a double room with a same-sex participant (a single room is possible with a surcharge). Breakfast and lunch will be provided every day, plus a welcome and a farewell dinner.
