

Confirmation of change of bylaws

3 §

The association accepts as members all individuals who are active as researchers or research students in education or otherwise connected with educational research. The association can be affiliated to other educational associations. Such an affiliation is decided upon by the Annual Delegates' Assembly. Membership in NERA is required for attending the annual NERA conference.